WALLINGFORD.

John Ward, about eighteen years of age and a resident of Cherry street near the Housafonic Manufacturing compamy's factory, met with a terrible accident at Hall & Elton's factory yesterday, where he has been employed since Monday. Shortly after the wheels started up at 7 o'clock he started to oil up the rolls and in bending over the sleeve of his shirt caught in the gearing and his right arm was drawn in the heavy cog-wheels and horribly crushed above the elbow. His neck and face also were caught and mangled, his jaw being broken and his skull frac tured at the base. He was taken to his home and Drs. Wilson, McClaughey and shoulder, having to take the bone from He was alive early last evening, but the attending physicians give no hopes of his recovery. He had n laid off for several weeks and came back to work attHall &tElton company's Rebecca Comstock, Miss Marion Luon Monday.

The committee on cithes and borough at Hartford will to-day make its report on the Wallingford electric light charter and will report unanimously against the granting of the charter. The com mittee reported adversely yesterday on a similar matter by Waterbury and Norwich. The report is no surprise to the ones who were well up in the matter, as it has been known for some time that the committee had decided against the scheme.

The lantern parade of the Ramblers Cycle club last evening was quite a success, and a very pretty display of handsomely decorated wheels was had Quite a delegation of Meriden wheelmen twere down here.

RAILROAD EMPLOYES

May Carry News Letters Without Stamps. It has been discovered that a decision ndered by Assistant Postmaster Genral Tyner on March 25, 1889, has an important bearing on the order recently sued by General Baggagemaster Morton of the New Haven road, which prohibited the carrying of news letters by the road's employes. This decision aays: The postoffice department in construing the law has not insisted that it is unlawful to carry such manuscript as is intended for publication when not ccompanied by matter in the nature of personal correspondence. News mater prepared by correspondents can under this ruling be carried by express or otherwise. The papers in this case have been on file in the law department of the New Haven road here since 1889 and were brought to light yesterday morning.

The throwing of the dirt onto the surface, on what was supposed to be solid ground was too heavy for the roof of the sub-cellar and it fell in. The damage to the boiler and cellar is considerable. The Water company however, will repair whatever damage was done without cost to Mrs. Hoad the owner of the building. Superintendent Dillon and the water boy were on the sidewalk, but fortunately were not hurt.

WAS DETERMINED TO DIE.

Mrs. Kelly Took Laudanum and Hung Her self Yesterday-Rescued in Time.

Mrs. Annie Kelly, thirty-five years dd, residing in the rear of fifty-one Eaton street, attempted to commit suicide yesterday, both by taking lauda num and hanging herself. Neither of her efforts were successful, and she spent the night in the locqup at police headquarters, charged with being in sane. She was acrested after her attempt at self-destruction by Officer Shields.

The would-be suicide is the wife of James B. Kelly, and was released from the Middletown insane asylum as cured. in November last. Yesterday morning she had some words with her husband, and it is said became despondent and went out and bought a quantity of laudanum. After her return home about 2 o'clock yesterday she cut up one of her husband's fish lines, and making a rope of it hung herself to the door after having taken a large dose of the laudanum.

Fortunately one of her neighbors an aged colored woman named Hamilton, went to Mrs. Kelly's house to call on her and found her suspended from the door. She immediately cut the woman down and summoned Dr. Hemingway. The latter applied restoratives, and in a well as ever. Officer Shields was ther called in, and the woman was taken to police headquarters, where she passed be sent back to the insane asylum a
